

THE MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL THURSDAY, JUNE 23, 1860.

Business. Politics.

Loral Watters.

Mr. Fox Baltimore & Sons' Ad.—At the St. Charles, where a meeting is held daily by the members of what will be the committee for the Baltimore convention. Sande has been requested to sign his name to be used as a candidate, but respectfully declined, as he does not consider himself worthy of such a position, should he run. The reason, however, he has made his mind up to be president of all brewers, and wishes to devote his whole time and attention to the manufacture of beer, and the promotion of public welfare, which has gained for him so much popularity all over the United States. The ale can always be had pure and genuine at the Charles, which has become the resort of the public, and the place of social gathering. Fanning & Lockert, sole agents.
